

Age Limit Policy for AACT Jr. and Young Performers Productions

AACT Jr. - 5-12

AACT Young Performers - 13-18

Minimum age: The actor must be the minimum age on or before the dates of auditions.

Maximum age: The actor can be the maximum age at auditions, and then have a birthday during the rehearsal process, and run of the show. For example, if they are 12 during auditions, and then turn 13 during the rehearsal process, that is acceptable.

Once an actor has graduated from High School they are no longer eligible to participate in the Young Performers Programs, even if they are still 18.

*Special Note for the Young Performers Productions – Depending on the show that is being done, the minimum age requirement may change. Occasionally we have need of younger actors in the cast.

Rehearsal Attendance Policy

Theater is the ultimate team activity. It is vitally important that everyone is at their rehearsals. It is impossible to adequately rehearse a scene when some of the cast is missing.

*You will not be scheduled to be at every rehearsal for the entire time. We will give you at least one week's notice if you will not be needed at rehearsal on a given day.

*Your child will need to be at all of their scheduled rehearsals.

* Please list ALL of conflicts on the Google Form.

*We do take the number of conflicts into account when casting a show.

*Saturday rehearsals are mandatory. For already scheduled school obligations, you may be excused from ONE Saturday rehearsal, but it must be listed on your conflict sheet. Any other circumstances must be approved by the director.

*Beginning at least two weeks before opening night all rehearsals are mandatory for the full cast. This will include all tech/dress rehearsals.

*An absence is considered unexcused if the child must miss rehearsal for any reason other than illness, family emergency or something that is NOT already listed on the conflict calendar.

*After 1 unexcused absence, your child will be dismissed from the show.

You must contact the Stage Manager prior to rehearsal to be excused for illness or family emergency.

Please check all schedules, dance, sports, school conflicts, family activities, etc. when listing your conflicts.
