

Imagine A Dragon - Character Breakdown

THE INNKEEPERS (8)

ISOBEL: Innkeeper of the Dancing Dragon Inn. She's determined to take care of the inn she inherited from her beloved grandfather, and everyone in it.

THE BARDS: Entertainers who sing and tell stories at the inn.

ROBIN (BARD): loves entertaining people. Has a big imagination and big ideas.

STARLING (BARD): has a flair for the dramatic, loves the spotlight. Clever.

LARK (BARD): has boundless energy, gets really excited easily.

THE COOKS: Talented chefs who are famous for their delicious stew.

CHEF BASIL: makes amazing food, though sometimes gets a little frazzled.

CHEF CLOVE: can whip up a feast from anything. Resourceful.

THE GUARDS: Security at the inn, like tough bouncers of medieval times.

TERRY (GUARD): looks intimidating, but actually very sweet and sensitive.

THORN (GUARD): fierce protector of both the Inn and best friend Terry's feelings.

THE PRINCESSES (8): Royals from all the kingdoms in the realm, who became friends because they're all looking for a chance to prove they are capable of more than decorating a castle.

PRINCESS WILLOW

PRINCESS LAUREL

PRINCESS LAVENDER

PRINCESS JUNIPER

PRINCESS ZINNIA

PRINCESS MAGNOLIA

PRINCESS LILAC

PRINCESS ROSE

THE HEROES (8) The warriors who became famous defending the realm from the dragon - but celebrity is a lot of pressure, and they worry about keeping their fans happy.

ROWAN

FLORIAN

TARRAGON

VALERIAN

AVALON

CASPIAN

ARDEN

PEREGRIN

THE ENSEMBLE

NOTE: All of the roles in Imagine a Dragon are gender-flexible and may be played by anyone. The Heroes and Princesses don't need to be grouped by gender - it's more about their jobs as fierce fighters and fancy royals, and what people expect of them because of those roles. The Bill Collector is a role that's important to the story, but since he/she only appears onstage at the end, this might be a good role to make a fun cameo (for example a teacher or another community member). IMAGINE A DRAGON

Director Book | Beat by Beat Press | bbbpress.com